LOSS OF THE BOERS.

It Is Estimated 95 Were Killed and
About 200 Wounded.

THE WIRES ARE CUT.

No News Comes from Ladysmith as to the Situation There—Various Rumors Springing up at the English Capital.

London, Nov. 3.—Belated dispatches from the British camp at Ladysmith add but little information. In Monday's fighting the estimates of Boer losses, which are now stated to be 95 killed and 200 wounded, were mostly victims of artillery shells which wrought such great havoc, that it is said General Joubert, the Boer commander-in-chief, has written a letter to General White, the British commander, protesting against the use of lyddite. According to all accounts the presence at Ladysmith of long range naval guns and the splendid shooting of the bluejackets has materially improved the position of the British. A temporary armistice was declared Monday evening to allow a collection of the dead and wounded.

GENERAL WHITE.

A dispatch from Kimberley dated Oct. 29, said all the wounded were doing well. Small bodies of Boers, about 40 strong, were then frequently seen. They apparently came from Mafeking for the purpose of either assisting in attack on Kimberley or resist the advance of reinforcements. The absence of water outside of the place has caused the Boers to continually move camps.

While the wires to Ladysmith are cut the opposition of the war office officials Thursday evening in refusing to believe that Ladysmith was completely invested or Colenso captured, appears to be justified. It is asserted that the railroad is still open though traffic is conducted with the greatest caution. What, however, was only a rumor Thursday, may, it is claimed, be a reality any moment as General Joubert with force is expected to detach a force of several thousand men and make a dash at the railroad.

Rumors of all kinds are springing up here. It is even asserted that General White has been compelled to fall back on Pietermaritzburg, leaving his wounded. Probably such rumors have origin in recollection of the ominous silence which preceded the evacuation of Dundee. But on the other hand, it is asserted that the condition has altered and British guns now seem more equal to the artillery of the Boers, thus enhancing the difficulty of any assault on the British lines.

Cape Town dispatches report the repulse of the Boers by British Thursday.

While there is a habit here to assume that the news of the Boers victories emanating from the continent, cannot be true because of the censorship, the fact is forgotten that foreign governments are fully privileged to send and receive cipher messages to and from representatives in South Africa.

The news that telegraphic communication with Ladysmith has been interrupted does not necessarily prove that the Boers have surrounded the town and closed in. It seems most probable that they have placed themselves on British lines of communication, repeating exactly their Dundee tactics. Apparently General Joubert means to capture Gen. White's forces in the hope either to bring England to terms or lead to a European intervention.

DEEPEST ALARM.

England Much Concerned the Way the War Is Now Going.

New York, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to The World from London says:

General Joubert's movement to cut off General White at Ladysmith from Colenso is being carried out and it is probable that Pietermaritzburg, the capital of Natal, will fall into General Joubert's hands before General Buller and reinforcements can arrive.

The South African situation is again causing the deepest alarm. The silence of the war office which has received several late dispatches from Cape Town and Durban, the holding back of the list of casualties at Ladysmith and finally the announcement of the mobilization of the second army corps on Nov. 10, all combine to show that the position of British power in South Africa is one of the gravest peril.

The World correspondent learns that the Dutch rising in northern Cape Colony has assumed menacing proportions, owing to the Boer successes, while the native unrest all along the Transvaal and Orange Free State borders has become most menacing. The natives can not be relied by on either side, but probably will fight for their own land.

With sedition spreading among the Cape and Natal Dutch, the natives waiting to jump in on their own account, and General White's forces beleaguered in Ladysmith, this war has suddenly become the most momentous to England in which she has engaged since the American revolution.

Mr. Chamberlain, who had proposed to take his ease at his country seat near Birmingham, while the Transvaal was being conquered, has found it necessary to come to town and is in constant communication with Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commissioner in South Africa.

Beresford Second in Command.

Plymouth, Eng., Nov. 3.—Rear Admiral Lord Charles Beresford has accepted the position of second in command of the British Mediterranean squadron in succession to Rear Admiral Noel, whose time expires in January next. Lord Beresford has already selected his staff.

HOBBART'S CONDITION.

He Refuses to Take Nourishment and Is Gradually Declining.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 3.—It is said at Vice President Hobart's home that he passed another comfortable night Thursday night. Although Mr. Hobart is resting easily, it is admitted he is gradually growing weaker. His failure to take nourishment in sufficient quantities is responsible for this.

Hoover Olsen Dead.

Galena, Ill., Nov. 3.—Hoover Olsen, better known as "Harve Anderson," the big Swede, was found dead in his house five miles from here. For 25 years he lived the life of a recluse. Belonging to a wealthy family in Sweden, at 20 years of age his father gave him a yacht and he sailed around the world. Although finely educated he was of a roving and adventurous disposition. He practiced law in Norway. Coming to America he married and prospered. He enlisted in company B, Eighth infantry, Illinois volunteers, served two years in the civil war and was a pensioner. Arrangements were almost completed to remove him to the Soldiers' home at Quincy. Domestic trouble, it is said, caused his retirement from the world. Three sons live in the state of Washington.

Dewey Reunion.

Tacoma, Nov. 3.—A. M. Dewey, special agent of the government department of labor, announced here that all members of the Dewey family related to Admiral Dewey, would hold a reunion at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in January or February. Dewey who is a cousin of the admiral, has been one of the prime movers in the plan for the reunion. He says acceptances have been received from all parts of the country, indicating that 500 Deweys will gather in New York to meet the admiral and his bride. Over 100 Deweys from the Pacific coast will be present, including Dr. Dewey, of this city. Admiral Dewey has been requested to fix the date of the reunion.

Finest Troopship Afloat.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The transport Hancock, was taken off the drydock having been entirely remodeled, so that she is now considered the finest troop ship in the world. An additional deck was built the entire length of the vessel. An isolated hospital with 50 beds and accommodations for nurses has been fitted up between decks. A refrigerating plant has been added, with a daily capacity of 50 tons of ice, producing 600 tons of water and furnishing ample cold storage. The soldiers' quarters have been supplied with all the comforts that could be desired.

Antitrust Baking Powder Company.

The printers are now thoroughly appreciating the benefits and beauties of trusts, says an exchange. Every type they use, every sheet of paper and envelope they buy, has advanced in prices from 10 to 60 per cent in the last few months. The demand has not increased, but the trusts have gotten hold of all the paper mills and all the foundries, and have raised prices a few verses to keep themselves out of the "poor house."

According to predictions of astronomers meteoric showers will occur on November 14 and 15. This natural phenomenon is said to recur every thirty-three and one-fourth years. There are those who can testify to such occurrences in 1833 and again in 1866. Now that the phenomenon can be witnessed without trepidation, the event will be looked forward to with interest. The greatest of the phenomenon will be after midnight of the 14th, and the magnitude of its splendor will no doubt well repay those who sit to witness the phenomena.

It seems that a mosquito has less sense than any living thing on earth, unless it is the negro who votes the republican ticket just to oppose the people who feed him. ### MARRYING CHOCTAWS.

Six Hundred White Men Have Married Indian Girls Lately.

Independence, Kan., Nov. 3.—During the past six weeks the matrimonial business in the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, has been at its highest. All along the borders of the country there has been hundreds of tents pitched and occupied by white men hunting squaw wives. For many years a white man marrying a Choctaw squaw and having children, came into possession of 550 acres of Choctaw land in that nation, and was allotted so much money yearly by the government for each member of his family. Consequently, the more children in the family, the larger amount of money received. This rule and the fact that the Choctaw girls are very attractive, have made them much sought after by white men.

A few weeks ago the Dawes commission issued an order providing that after Nov. 1, 1899, a man who was not of Choctaw Nation blood marrying an Indian woman should not be allowed to share in the lands and monies of the tribe. This ruling caused the men who were anxious to share the fortunes of squaws to marry much earlier than they intended. Consequently the Choctaw Nation has been filled with white men hunting wives, and since this order was made more than 600 white men have married squaw wives.

The great majority of the Choctaw girls are pure white and have beautiful complexions. Most of them have black hair and eyes, although a few are perfect blondes. As a rule they are highly educated, and if they have any white blood in them at all they will not marry Indians, and the white men have heretofore been somewhat in demand. The girls marry at the age of 17.

IOWA VOLUNTEERS.

They Will Be Entertained in the Best Possible Style.

Des Moines, Nov. 3.—Plans are now complete for the reception of the Fifty-first regiment of Iowa volunteers in all the towns that have companies. The state reception will be at Council Bluffs Monday afternoon, and every company is expected to reach home that night.

The Des Moines companies will be given a brief reception on their arrival, when 51 girls will pin medals on the soldiers. The medals are given by the city and cost $5 each. Thursday evening a grand reception will be given to the Des Moines companies at the state house and following it the official banquet. Plenty of noise and fireworks will accompany the demonstration.

The local cavalry companies and both the Grand Army of the Republic posts will take part in the parade on the arrival of the boys. Most of the local receptions will be held Wednesday or Thursday on account of the election and to give the boys time to see their families. Banquets, medals and all sorts of honors will be showered upon the soldiers. Red Oak will spend $1000 and Creston will have a triumphal arch.

ROBBED A STORE.

Four Masked Men Line up the Clerks and Secure a Good Sum.

South McAlester, I. T., Nov. 3.—Four masked men entered Governor Brown's store at Wewoka, I. T., Wednesday night and at the point of four 6-shooters made the clerks stand in a line. The robbers then took all the money they could find, about $1000, some fine guns and a lot of ammunition.

They then relieved the clerks and bystanders of their watches and other valuables, after which they took their departure for parts unknown. Officers have gone in pursuit of the robbers, but at present writing are on a cold trail.

Fighting Taxation in Tennessee.

Nashville, Nov. 3.—The Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis Railroad company has filed a bill against T. E. King, comptroller, seeking to restrain him from certifying to the officers of Shelby county or the city of Memphis, the assessment of the distributable property of complainant for 1899 or 1900, or taking any steps to collect taxes so far as the assessment exceeds $39,800. The railroad commission assessed the company $14,000 per mile on 18.18 miles, or $254,452. The company accepted, but the exception was overruled and the assessment certified. The board of equalization also overruled the exceptions. The company claims that only two miles of main line and connections at Memphis should be assessed, and that the valuation is excessive. A temporary injunction was granted, and the hearing is set for Nov. 11.

Negro Mobbed.

Courtland, Ala., Nov. 13.—Andrew Schloss, a negro was taken out of jail here Wednesday night by a mob and hanged to a tree on the outskirts of the town. He was arrested on the charge of attempting criminal assault on a white woman.

Schley Coming South.

Austin's Gin Burned.

ROUTED THE REBELS.

In Several Skirmishes the Americans Put the Filipinos to Flight.

Manila, Nov. 3.—On Wednesday Lieutenant Slaven and 196 men reconnoitered MacArthur's front, struck 40 or more entrenched insurgents. He immediately attacked and dispersed them, killing three and wounding a number. No casualties.

Thursday Lawton's advance at Aliago struck the enemy both west and south of the city. Batson's Maccabee scouts reconnoitering south struck the insurgents in ambush. Lieutenant Boutelle was killed and one scout wounded. Batson routed the enemy and left seven dead in the thickets.

Bell, with the Thirty-sixth volunteers and a troop of the Fourth cavalry cleared the country of all armed insurgents from Florida Blanco to a considerable distance beyond Porac, pursuing them into the mountains, capturing nine of their cavalry horses, several guns and considerable property and killed, wounded a number of the enemy. The insurgent cavalry of that section was practically destroyed. Bell's casualties were one man killed and two wounded.

THE GULF ROAD.

The Philadelphia People Will Get Control in the Reorganization.

New York, Nov. 3.—Final plans for the readjustment of the financial affairs of the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railway company will be published within a day or two. The so-called "Philadelphia committee" has been victorious in its efforts to control the reorganization and its managers will hereafter be in charge of Pittsburg and Gulf affairs. The "Ladenburg" or "New York" committee has yielded and will deposit its own stocks and bonds with the rival and recommend the opposition reorganization scheme. The plan, as it will be published, will be slightly different from that put out by the Philadelphia a few months ago, having been somewhat modified in the interests of the holders of junior securities.

The reorganizers have received satisfactory assurances from the Union Pacific and Chicago and Alton controllers that these roads will give the Pittsburg and Gulf a great deal more business than it ever received from them before.

Discharged Soldier Killed.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—Charles Hall, formerly a private in the First Nebraska volunteers and more recently a cook on the transport Hancock, was shot and killed by C. S. Dodge, an aged saloon-keeper, at the latter's place near Hunter's Point. The shooting was the result of a row over the payment for drinks between several discharged soldiers, of whom Hall was one, and young Dodge, son of the proprietor, who was knocked senseless during the melee. Seeing his son lying on the floor and supposing him to be dead, Dodge, who is 73 years old, procured a revolver and fired at the person he thought had struck the young man. The crowd scattered and Hall fell dead on the sidewalk outside the door. Dodge has been arrested and charged with murder.

Judgment Against Duestrow Estate.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Dr. James K. Baudy has obtained judgment in Judge Flitcraft's division of the circuit court against the estate of Arthur Duestrow for $5089.25 for services rendered in testifying at the trials of Duestrow. The case is an old one, and has been pending in the courts since the early part of 1897, when Dr. Baudy first made his demand for $6250. Administrator F. J. McMaster at one time filed application for an injunction to prevent Dr. Baudy from making the claim in the court, but the writ was denied.

A German Cooperative Company.

Cumberland, Wis., Nov. 3.—A colony of 100 Germans, who call themselves "Christian Socialists," have purchased 4000 acres of land on the Chippewa Falls and Northern branch of the Omaha railroad, northeast of here, and have established a station called Sorona. They are building large houses and barns, and will work their land on the cooperative or socialistic plan. They are a religious sect, who came from the north of Germany.

Missouri Volunteers' Bill.

Jefferson City, Nov. 3.—In a short time now the bill of the state of Missouri, amounting to $23,000, for the mobilization of the Missouri troops during the Spanish war will be presented to the national government. There are some bills out yet for the state to pay before the bill is presented. There will be no trouble, General Bell thinks, in securing payment in full for the state.

Valuable Whale Cargo.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The whaling bark Charles Morgan, which arrived here from the Okhotsk sea, after a year's cruise, secured 1400 barrels of sperm oil, 2600 pounds of bone and 60 pounds of ambergris. The latter is an especially good find, as it will bring from $250 to $400 a pound. The Morgan caught in all 48 sperm whales and two right whales.

Many Persons Drowned.

Antwerp, Nov. 3.—The landing stage of the Waeland railroad ferryboat on the left bank of the Scheldt river broke in two on the arrival of the first train, which was crowded. Many persons fell into the water and 15 or 20 of them drowned. Ten bodies have been recovered.

Andrade Going to Porto Rico.

St. Thomas, Nov. 3.—General Ignacio Andrade, the recently deposed president of Venezuela, who made his escape from Caracas on Oct. 20, has arrived here. He will go to San Juan, Porto Rico.

JEFFRIES WINS

By Decision of the Referee, on a Mistake of Sharkey's, in the Last Round.

After a sanguinary contest between Sharkey and Jeffries in New York last night, in which both men gave and received great punishment, the fight ended in the twenty-fifth round. Jeffries lost a glove and Sharkey hit him while it was being put on, whereupon the referee gave the fight to Jeffries. It appears, however, that Sharkey was considered the best man. The sports were astonished at the stamina of both men.

Skipped by the Light of the Moon.

An advance notice says: The announcement that "Skipped by the light of the Moon" that bright and sparkling farce comedy is to be placed en route again, and is to be seen at the Grand opera house here Thursday, Nov. 9, will meet the hearty approval of many of its erstwhile admirers. In preparing it for the current season many new features have been added, which, while in no way detracting from its old time effectiveness will render it "up to date" and in line with the best attractions of its order. In the height of its fame, this was one of the most satisfactory comedies ever presented, and in a monetary as well as artistic success, it had few equals, scoring immense success not only in this country, but throughout England and Australia. In the way of equipment, everything is brand new and the best, and with a coterie of highly excellent players, it is sure to array itself in its old time laurels.

Sold His Pension.

The Duke of Norfolk has just commuted a pension which has a curious history. It goes as far back as Flodden Field, where his ancestor, the Earl of Surrey, commanded, and was awarded a perpetual pension of $200 a year for his victorious soldiery. The money has been paid annually, century in and century out, ever since, and now the duke has let the country off for $4000 down.

Where He Made a Mistake.

There was a man who would not read a Sunday paper, neither would he go into the fields or forests to enjoy the beauties of nature on that day, and he fulminated against those who did not do as he did, and oft in his anger at others he forgot the commandments and wished that those who enjoyed themselves on Sunday might be stricken down for their wickedness.

Now, it came to pass, that while this man sat alone upon a Sunday he died, and his spirit winged its way to the pearly gates, and lo! they were closed against him, and St. Peter stood upon the inside and spoke through the bars unto him, saying:

"Behold, you held it wicked to lo saught upon the Sabbath day that might have been done upon any other day, and you prayed that he who did that upon the Sabbath which they might have done upon some other day of the week should be punished, and you prayer has been answered. You might have died on Saturday or Monday."

New Business in Hamlet.

Sarah Bernhardt has invented some novel "business" for her acting of Hamlet. In the scene where she instructs the players she adopts her real manner with her own company. She conceals her face behind Ophelia's hair as she caresses it, and at the end, seizing a torch, holds it to the king's face to study its expression. She claims originality, never having seen Booth or Irving in the part.

A Name for the Baby.

In some countries curious customs prevail in regard to selecting a name for the baby. A Hindu baby is named when it is twelve days old and usually by the mother. Sometimes the father wishes for another name than that selected by the mother. In that case two lamps are placed over the two names, and the brightest is the one given to the child.

In an Egyptian family the parents choose a name for their baby by lighting three wax candles to each of these they give a name one of the three belonging always to some dignified personage. The candle that burns the longest determines the name for the baby.

The Mohammedans sometimes write desirable names on five slips of paper, and these they place in the Koran. The name upon the slip first drawn out is given to the child.

The children of the Ainos, a people living in northern Japan, do not receive their names until they are five years old. At that age the father gives his son a new name.

The Chinese give their boy babies a name in addition to their surnames, and they must call themselves by these names until they are twenty years old. At that age the father gives his son a new name.

The Chinese care so little for their girl babies that they do not give them a baby name, but just call them No. 1, No. 2, No. 3, according to their birth.

Boys are thought so much more of in China than girls that if you ask a Chinese father who has both a boy and a girl now many children he has he will always reply "Only one child."

German parents sometimes change the name of their baby if it is ill, and the Japanese are sure to change the name of a child four times.

Sham Battle's Funny Incident.

"A peculiar thing happened in Nashville during a sham battle," said a Memphian who was once a State militiaman. "In order to make the drill realistic it was given out that some of the men should fall as if shot, but no certain ones were specified. It was a very hot afternoon, and it struck me that it would be a good thing to fall in a shady spot and rest while the other soldiers drilled and perspired. The first shady spot we reached I fell all right but the same bright idea had struck every member of the company, and the captain suddenly turned and found his entire company 'killed.' He fined us $5 each, and we came to life again and finished the drill." This experience is similar to that of a theatrical manager who employed colored students to represent the opposing forces in a sham battle. Certain students were instructed to fall during the engagement to represent the casualties, but at the sound of the first gun the soldiers of both armies dropped dead and put an end to the performance.

From Maine to Arizona.

One of the girls in the mills at Waterville, Me., several months ago, wrote her name and address on a piece of cotton. The other day she received a letter from a lady in Arizona, who said the cloth had been purchased by Uncle Sam and was being cut up for garments in a school for the Apache Indians there. It was but a few years ago that the Apaches, the most cruel and fiendish tribe of North American Indians, were taking scalps instead of making shirts.

Lifting Power of Growing Plants.

The lifting power of a growing plant is one of the most astonishing things in nature. Beans and acorns often lift heavy masses of earth in their struggles to reach the light. Mushrooms have displaced flagging stones in a number of instances.

COMMISSION'S REPORT

Facts Found by the Investigation
in the Philippines.

TROUBLE REVIEWED.

It Tells of Spain's Promises to the People and Their Failures and the Trouble Existing There at the Present.

Washington, Nov. 3.—In accordance with the understanding reached at the conference at the White House Wednesday the Philippine commission submitted to the president the preliminary report which it had promised to prepare.
The report is a summary of conditions in the islands as the commission left them; of the historical events which preceded the Spanish war and led to the original Philippine insurrection; of the exchanges between Admiral Dewey and the other American commanders and the insurgents; the breaking out and progress of the present insurrection and finally a statement of the capacity of the Filipinos for selfgovernment. A notable feature of the report is a memorandum by Admiral Dewey, explanatory of his relations with Aguinaldo.

The report tells briefly how it was conducted the task entrusted to it of hearing statements from all classes of people in Manila as to the capabilities of the Filipinos for selfgovernment, the habits and customs of the people and also the establishment of municipal governments in many towns. All the matter is to be included in the final report.

Turning to the history of the islands the commission attaches little importance to the divers rebellions which had preceded that of 1896. As to this movement they declare that it was in no sense an attempt to win independence, but solely to obtain relief from intolerable abuse. To sustain this statement they quote from an insurgent proclamation, showing that what was demanded was the expulsion of the friars and the restitution to the people of their lands, with a division of the episcopal sees between Spanish and native priests.

It was also demanded that the Filipinos have parliamentary representation, freedom of the press, religious toleration, economic autonomy and laws similar to those of Spain. The abolition of the power of banishment was demanded with a legal equality for all persons in law and equality in pay between Spanish and native civil servants. The commission declares that these demands had good grounds, that on paper the Spanish system of government was tolerable, but in practice the Spanish governor did what he saw fit, and the evil deeds were hidden from Spain by strict press censorship.

Allusion is made to the powerful Katapunian society, mainly made of Tagalos, as a powerful revolutionary force.

The war begun in 1896 was to be terminated by the treaty of Biac-na-Bate.
The Filipinos were numerous but possessed only about 800 small arms. The Spanish thought it would take 100,000 men to capture their stronghold and concluded to resort to money. Certain concessions were also decided upon, including representatives of the Filipinos in the Cortes, the deportation of the friars, which was the principal question, the grant of the right of association and of a free press. Governor General Rivera was willing to pay $2,000,000, Mexican money, when Aguinaldo and his cabinet and leading officers arrived in Hong Kong.

It appears, however, that Paterno only offered the latter $400,000, $200,000 to be paid when Aguinaldo arrived at Hong Kong and the balance when the Filipinos had delivered up their guns.
The arrangement was not acceptable to the people. The promises were never carried out, Spanish abuses began afresh, in Manila alone more than 200 men being executed. Hence sporadic risings occurred, though they possessed nothing like the strength of the original movement. The insurgents lacked arms, ammunition and leaders. The treaty had ended the war which, with the exception of an important outbreak in Cebu had been confined to Luzon.
Spain's sovereignty in the other islands never having been questioned, and the thought of independence never having been entertained.

The report then tells how General Augustin came to Manila as governor general at this juncture and war broke out between Spain and the United States.
Augustin sought to secure the support of the Filipinos to defend Spain against America, promising them autonomy, but the Filipinos did not trust him. Then came the first of May and the destruction of the Spanish fleet by Dewey with the resulting loss of prestige to Spain.
Then Aguinaldo came.

Aguinaldo came to Cavite on board the McCulloch. He arrived with 13 of his staff on May 19, and immediately came on board the Olympia to call on the commander-in-chief, after which he was allowed to land at Cavite and organize an army. This was done with the purpose of strengthening the United States and weakening those of the enemy. No alliance of any kind was entered into with Aguinaldo, nor was any promise of independence to him then or at any other time made.

The commission's report then rapidly sketches events now historical. It tells in substance how the Filipinos attacked the Spanish and how General Adderson arrived and Aguinaldo at his request removed from Cavite to Bacoor. Then came the friction between Aguinaldo's forces and the Americans, which exists today.

APPEAL TO HIS MEN.

Aguinaldo Issues a Proclamation as to the War and Congress

Manila, Nov. 3.—Aguinaldo has issued a proclamation announcing that the American congress will meet in December to decide whether "the imperialist policy" and this "bloody work" are to be continued. He exhorts his soldiers to conduct themselves so that congress will consider them worthy of independence and requests the priests to abstain from politics and redeem the church from the bad name the misdeeds of the friars have given it.

A crisis in the Filipino cabinet is predicted as the result of the resignations of Paterno and Buencamino, two Filipino leaders who have lost confidence in the rabid revolutionists.

Some Filipinos who attempted to come to Manila with the Spanish commission received a message from General Otis saying the women and children would be given American protection, but that the men who had cast their lot with the insurrection must remain with it.

The party included a brother of Gen.
Luna, who was assassinated by the guard before Aguinaldo's house, with his family and the Filipino secretary of the treasury's family. The families returned to Tarlac.

The feeling of disquiet aroused at Iloilo by the arrest of Santiago, the wealthy Filipino, who is charged with forming a revolutionary junta, has subsided. The natives in their quarter of the town are sullen and are restless and we heard chanting the death song at night, with the refrain: "The Americans sleep." A provost marshal's force surrounded the quarters and drove the suspicious looking natives outside the lines.

The Americans occupy Iloilo and the adjoining towns of Jaro and Molo with 4000 men. The insurgent force is now supposed to be between 500 and 5000 armed men and many more unarmed.
Their lines are about 900 yards from Jaro, which is occupied by the Twenty-sixth regiment. The insurgents are supposed to have five smooth bore cannon.

After Cattle Thieves.

Texarkana, Tex., Nov. 3.—The law officers of this place are busy running down a gang of cattle thieves that has again infested this section. For the past two weeks no less than 12 citizens of the town have lost their milch cows.
It is claimed that the animals were driven off and corralled in Red river bottom, where they were slaughtered and the meat brought to Texarkana and sold to the butchers. About one year ago this same trouble arose, when a trap was laid and the perpetrators were caught and some sent to the penitentiary.

Probably Mortally Wounded.

Terrell, Tex., Nov. 3.—F. P. Reese, a tinner, was wounded here with a ball from a 38-caliber pistol at the entrance of the Harris hotel. A party voluntarily surrendered to City Marshal Joe Kellar and is held to await the result of the injuries to Reese. Only one shot was fired, striking Reese in the neck and lodging there.

Collision on the Santa Fe.

Ardmore, I. T., Nov. 3.—A rear-end collision between two freight trains in the Santa Fe yards here completely demolished engine No. 117 and several box cars. The collision occurred on a short curve. A brakeman named Childress was slightly injured. Passenger trains are delayed here.

City Bonds Sold.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 3.—The city bonds, amounting to 14,000 were, by order of the city council, sold to the First National bank of Victoria, which promptly accepted the bonds. Half of this amount will be paid out in street improvements and the other half for the erection of a city hall.

Royal Welcome.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 3.—Returning warriors never received a more royal welcome home than that accorded the soldiers of Kansas' famous fighting Twentyeth on its arrival from San Francisco here. General Frederick Funston came in for the lion's share of attention shown to the officers.

Concannon No Better.

Denison, Tex., Nov. 3.—There has been absolutely nothing new developed in the express robbery case. Express Messenger W. S. Concannon is still unconscious, and does not recognize anyone. His condition is no better and the doctors say the chances are still against him.

Seriously Cut With a Razor.

San Diego, Tex., Nov. 3.—Pedro Ramos was fatally wounded at a dance near Guadalupe, 12 miles south of here, by being cut 12 times with a razor.
Ramos is in a precarious condition.
Paucho Seguro and his two brothers were lodged in jail charged with the crime.

Diphtheria Cases Reported.

Lockhart, Tex., Nov. 3.—Considerable excitement prevails here on account of the report of four or five cases of diptheria in town. The health officers are using every precaution to keep the disease from spreading.
